

Arizona Daily Star

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA.

Free Books for Kids & Teens

Crafts & Activities

Food & Entertainment

Where words & imagination come to life for the whole family

March 10-11, 2018 • 9:30am - 5:30pm • University of Arizona Campus • Free Admission

IMAGINATIONS RUN FREE

- Free admission to all events
- Writing and drawing workshops for kids and adults
- Presentations by favorite authors and illustrators
- One free book for every child*

THE GLORIES OF STORIES

- Watch Stories That Soar! perform tales written by local youth
- Chat with authors appearing in the Children and Young Adult Pavilions
- Learn the craft of telling great stories with words and pictures
- Discover the “story behind the story” from best-selling authors and illustrators
- Be captivated by the oral tradition of master storytellers
- Drop-in at the Tent for Tots & Story Blanket - geared toward the younger children

HANDS-ON EXPERIENCES

- Hand books to your favorite authors and they'll autograph them
- Participate in activities just for teens and hear from young adult authors in the teen area
- Create your own story by writing and drawing with best-selling illustrators and authors
- Budding scientists can try their hand at dozens of Science City activities
- Enjoy arts and crafts

FAMILY-FRIENDLY FARE

- Hear storytellers and listen to musical acts on entertainment stages
- See literary circus performances of Around the Circus World with Jules Vern and Cirque de Mother Goose
- Make your own pictographs and petroglyphs at Western National Parks Pavilion
- Smell the weird experiments in Science City
- Taste great food from local vendors in the Food Courts

*while supplies last.

To learn more, visit TucsonFestivalofBooks.org to follow us on Facebook and Twitter and to download mobile apps (apple and android)

Presenting Sponsor  Tucson Medical Center

The Tucson Unified School District, Catalina Foothills School District or any other school district neither endorses nor sponsors the organization or activity represented in this material. The distribution or display of this material is provided as a community service.

Printed courtesy of
AZ LITHO