Reimagined Indie Author Experience in 2023!

For the first time in 2023, the Indie Authors will have an opportunity to have a spot on a presenting author panel at the Festival. To create this opportunity a new submission process has been established in tandem with a scoring matrix to judge Indie Author books.

There is a $40 non-refundable, submission fee per book with a two book maximum. Payment does not guarantee a spot in the Festival.

The application and submission process will be open to all Indie Authors after Labor Day, September 7, 2022. Each author will complete the standard author application process on the Festival website as well as uploading the entire published original work that they wish to have reviewed. The book must be uploaded by October 14, 2022 in order to be considered.

In addition to the panel opportunity, winning and runner-up Indie Authors will be invited to participate in a 3-hour slot in the traditional pavilion format on Saturday or Sunday of the Festival. Scheduling of the pavilions will occur after all reviews have been completed and panel authors have been announced.
